

Exeter Public School

will hold our
Kindergarten Orientation Day
(for students enrolling in Kinder 2010)
on Wednesday October 28, 2009

- 9:25 am: Join us for morning assembly. Following assembly, your child will join Kindergarten for the morning session in their "new" classroom & you are welcome to join us for a cup of tea/coffee in the Residence.
- 10:00 am: Information session for parents including opportunity to look at uniforms
- 11:30 am: Join your child for morning tea in the playground

Please bring: packed recess for your child, enrolment form, identity documents & immunisation form (if not already provided), difficult questions for the information session and courage to let your child head off into the Kindergarten room!

Interested families are, of course, welcome to visit our school at any time but it may be wise to ring first in case we are at one of our gala days or away on an excursion.
